Fine Furniture Reproductions: 18th Century Revivals Of The 1930s & 1940s From Baker Furniture, With Current Values

Synopsis

In 1940, the Baker Furniture Company of Holland and Grand Rapids, Michigan published a catalog of their hand-finished 18th century reproduction furniture. It was filled with examples and information about their craft. This edition has illustrations of over 600 reproductions, with information about dimensions, materials, and the provenance of the design. With a current price guide this is a great tool for the collector, dealer, or designer.

Customer Reviews

Great idea, But the print is not good in this publication. Descriptions are hard to read.

This book is very informative. I was particularly interested in Baker furniture. Would recommend it to anyone.
